FARMVILLE.

The "girls" are with us again, and everybody is happy. Our confectioners are smiling from ear to ear and even our preachers have a more pleasing look.

Our Methodist friends are fortunate in securing the use of the Auditorium as their place of worship while their new church is being built. Contractor Rice showed me the new structure on paper the other day, and when finished it will be a fit companion for the best of the churches in our larger cities.

Now that our High Street is being paved in most approved style, many of our people are asking why the work was not begun in the early summer so as to have been finished by the time of the opening of the Normal session. First impressions are lasting, and the new girl's first view of Farmville streets should not have been found in an upturned condition.

Old Cumberland is supplying a large portion of the timbers which are being used in the construction of our new buildings. Farmville could'nt well get on without old Cumberland and Buckingham. They contribute largely to her physical comforts.

Capt. H. H. Hunt is the best equipped photographer I know of. His instruments of work are of finest sort and his parlors are most attractive. Add to these artistic skill and Farmville has no need to go off or send off for pictures. The home-made article is good enough for the most fastidious of us.

One of the interesting sights of our town is to watch the manufacture of plow handles at the Farmville M'fg. Company. With the most approved machinery they are fashioned into shape with remarkable rapidity and when finished occupy front rank in the markets of the country. Mr. G. M. Robeson, the author of this splendid plant, deserves great credit for his brilliant victory in the field of business.

"Labor Day" was celebrated in Farmville by every man sticking to his job. As a people we keep the Sabbath but are not much given to observing holidays.

With eggs at 25 cents a dozen, old ham 20 cents, chickens 35 cents each, butter hard to get, coffee rising in price and house servants fallen into "inocuous desuetued," the widows who have come here to make a living feeding boarders at $12.50 a month have a tough proposition to deal with. And then the Virginia housewife never did know how to feed on cold bread, 'tatoes and apple butter.

The first brick in the Methodist church now under construction was laid at twenty minutes to 4 p. m. on the 3rd inst. Now that the sun has come again the work will be pushed vigorously.

"Ben" Cox is kept busy getting something for those Normal girls to eat.

The new town council at it's first meeting named a new street commissioner and did away with the services of one policeman.

A driver of one of our one-horse drays told me that one day last week he lost, in $8.65.

New fall prints are seen in our store windows.

A fellow-townsman anticipating a severe winter, is buying up all the boxes he can command for kindling.

Farmers bring in doleful reports from the tobacco fields. The injury from burning and specking must be serious. Wheat is damp too, low ground corn badly damaged and that on the uplands not so good as it looks to be. Altogether the wet season has been a most disastrous one. Still the men who till the soil are better off than they have been for years.

Our town water keeps refreshingly clear and the wonder is that Richmond does'nt come and learn the secret.

Watching, as I do, day by day, carpenters, brick layers, plasterers, tinners and men of kindred crafts, making good wages day by day, I am impressed with the fact that there should be fewer lawyers and more laborers.

Mrs. Dr. Pratt and family are snugly nestled in their new home and have been warmly welcomed to the social and church circles of our town.

Wednesday of each week is calling day on the Tidewater & Western as it is on the Southern, and on last Wednesday some splendid specimens were shipped.

The new depot at Cumberland has been finished and now work is progressing on the one at Sunnyside The chain of new depots will be continued by the Company to Chester.

The residences of Messrs. Warren Walker and Joe Garland, the former in east Farmville and the latter in south Farmville are receiving finishing touches and are very handsome. Mr. R. S. Rice is contractor of each of them.

Mr. H. E. Wall, who for so many years has been the leading hardware merchant of our town, is preparing to quit the business of merchant. his investments are numerous and will afford him interesting employment.

I saw an aged lady with a tempting toddy by her plate at breakfast but she invited none of the 'men folks' present to join her.

One of the new teachers at the Normal is from the North, and has never known much of the negro character as it is unfolded in the South, and it is a study to her. As soon as she understands it as the Southern people do she will agree with them in all their positions and prejudicies with reference to it.

Some sickness is prevalent in Normal ranks, and while it hurts, it don't kill. Still none but a dead heart fails to sympathize with it. Three of the lady teachers of the N'rmal have their mothers with them, and the intimacy between mothers and daughters is beautiful

The few of our friends who went away during the summer in search of health or pleasure don't look as well or as happy as those of us who remained at home and on home-duty all summer.

A Clear Complexion and Bright Eyes

In most cases a sallow, blotched complexion and dull heavy eyes are due to poor digestion and an inactive liver. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels and makes the complexion bright and clear. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purpose for which it is intended. Sold by J. R. Atwood, Appomattox; R. J. Carter, Prospect; E. F. Glover, Evergreen.

According to Mr. Hearet's paper, Mr. Hearst is elected.

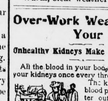
Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.



The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail

While a severe electric storm was raging on the evening of the 12th, lightning struck a corp house on the farm of W. W. Haskins, shivering a solid oak corner post, knocking off the weatherboarding and otherwise injuring the building and little John Haskins had just passed that way a few moments before and had stopped out of the rain and would in all probability have remained there but a colored girl who was with him told him he had better come on to the dwelling house. A pair of horses were standing not many yards off and they became frightened and ran off in the pasture. The same day Mr. F. M. Jones lost his barn and contents by fire, which was caused by lightning and Carter Allen had his stacks burned the same way.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ellis invited a number of young girls and boys to meet their niece Miss Adele Ellis, of Alabama, on the 13th at 'Mount Rush.' Refreshments were served; music was provided, and 'mine host' and hostess spared no pains to make the evening pass off pleasantly. Miss Adele Ellis is the only child of Mr. Perkins Ellis and her annual visits at 'Afton' afford much pleasure to the young people near her age.

The daily papers last week gave an account of a man who talked in his sleep, and told of the murder he had committed, told of the drug store at which he had purchased the poison with which he killed the man, and the widow of the man, whose death he had caused, heard what he told in his sleep and she told the attorney for the commonwealth and the man was tried and sentenced to life-imprisonment. I say folks, you had better shut your mouths when you go to sleep.

Of the veterans who registered under the military clause of the new constitution 30 have died in this county, not all these, however, were the gray nor were all of them white men, but the old soldiers are fast answering to the last roll call. This was a just clause in the Constitution, but when the sons of old soldiers were allowed the right of suffrage some young men were allowed to vote who are not near as worthy as some who are denied the right by other clauses. I saw comrade Wm. B Megginson on Sunday. He is confined to his bed, but his eye is as bright as when he was fighting in the Confederate ranks, and if some of his old comrades in arms want to give him real pleasure, as well as do a deed of kindness, go to see him. He enjoys company, reads the papers and takes a lively interest in current events. It is beautiful to see the devotion of his faithful wife who cares for his every want and his sister, Mrs. Bosworth is on a visit to him.

Buckingham and Scottsville Bridge.

The commissioners awarded the contract for the bridge across the James to the Virginia Bridge Company of Roanoke, Va., for the sum of twenty-two thousand dollars, and all contracts were drawn up and properly signed for an "A1" steel bridge, concrete piers, double track, and all requisite dirt fills, to be completed within seven months.

All the commissioners were present at the meeting—E. L. Fox chairman, and T. W. Heath, representing the town of Scottsville; W. C. Thacker and M. L. A Moseley, the counties of Albemarle and Buckingham, respectively, and Dr. J. P. Blair, commissioners, clerk. Mr. Hubbard representing the Virginia Bridge Company.

The contract in respect to payments, is as follows: When the steel is on the ground the commissioners will give the bridge company an order on the town of Scottsville for $2,000; an order on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company for $4,000, and as much of private subscription as collected, not exceeding $2,000. When the bridge is completed and accepted by the commissioners, an order will be given by them on the county of Buckingham for $3,000, on the county of Albemarle for $3,000; on the town of Scottsville for $6,000, on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. for $2,000, and of the private subscriptions an amount will be given, not to exceed $2,000 in all. Mr. Hubbard, the representative of the Virginia Bridge Company, is of the opinion that the structure will be finished before the end of the seven months allowed for its completion.

Bent Creek.

The worst storm that has been known in this section for many years, came last Wednesday. The loudest thunder and most vivid lightning. The storm continued for more than two hours. We have heard of no great damage being done though as yet.

Mr. Fleming Gooch, one of the wealthiest men in this community is critically ill at his home near here. There is something peculiar about him, while he has been richly endowed with this world's goods he has lived in a solitary manner for many years doing his own cooking and house-work. He was paralyzed several weeks ago and since then a colored man has been waiting on him. He has a cousin in Lynchburg, who has visited him twice since his illness. There will be a considerable harvest for someone to reap, when he is no more.

Mr. A. A. White spent some time in Lynchburg recently.

Mrs. Mary A. Dixon who has been sick so long is thought to be improving at this writing.

Mr. Kirby Smith and family, who left their lovely home River Bluff and took charge of the Gladstone Hotel, about 18 months ago have returned to their former home. We are glad to have them back on this side of the majestic James.

Madam Rumor says that one of our widowers will soon wed. This is the third go round.

Charley Reynolds, colored, who has been to the asylum several times was either discharged or made his escape some time ago. He is now wilder than ever. Mr. E. J. Carter assisted by others has been on the look out for him for several days. Mr. Carter caught him once but let him make his escape. It is stated that he caught a little child and beat it severely some days ago.

Messrs. Wright, Hughes, Rose and others have had some very exciting fox hunts recently.

The greatest imposition we have heard of for a long time was practiced on some of us suckers about six weeks ago. Two men calling themselves Fairfield and Lewis pretended to be in the employment of the government to take pictures of the old homes through the state they said that these pictures would be exhibited at the Jamestown Exposition. They also stated that to accommodate you, we can take your picture and have it finished up for you." In this way they obtained a lot of money and that has been six weeks ago and not one word has been heard from them since and the pictures were to be back in 12 days, so they said.

Mr. T. S. Beal and daughter, Mamie returned from Lynchburg, last Wednesday.

Mr. C. M. Dixon, of Irondale, Ala. started for home Wednesday. His friends regretted to see him leave.

Miss Lula Meginson of Midway, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. H. Marks last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hunter, of Bluefield, W. Va. who have been visiting Mr. C. W. Phelps left on the 14th.

Mr. J. C. Harris has taken his primings to Lynchburg, there are lots more to go from this section.

Men have died and worms have eaten them, but not for love, so spoke little Willie Shake Speare years ago. And so say I to-day. When a man dies no one need fear it is from love; they may have softening of the brain or indigestion, but when a man dies from undue softness of the heart, then we may know although we have not witnessed the wonderful sight of the law-breakers, he pretended to climb the ladder of fame, even though it caused the woman he had cherished to spend long sleepless nights of anguish. A man's heart will never stand in the way of his ambitions. When the glent of gold allures him or the bugle blast of fame come to him a woman will always find that he can forget love when the plaudit of the world sounds in his ears, and that his vows are not writ in sand, her idol is but clay. No matter how lonely he may feel, give him a good dinner and a comfortable chair and a pipe, tell him a story to make him laugh and the little god of love is vanquished While a bad dinner will make him cross for days. A gun shot wound will often prove fatal, but pull out Cupid's dart and apply the salve of flattery to the wound and lo, he will be healed and he can be smiling and happy again. "Carline, cut this short," said Lucinda, lo king up from the hat she had been trying to turn bind part before. "You know nothing of a man's heart or love, not as much as a fishing worm does about what is selfish or why the new collar and cuffs are called Peter Pan. Now don't go and say that you knew him long ago and that he was an old beau of yours. But why they call them Peter Pan, is more than I can tell. Yet every woman you meet has her sleeves rolled up to her elbows and collar and cuffs of either red white or blue sewed on to her shirtwaist and thinks she looks swagger, no matter how long her neck or bony her arm she must be a Peter Pan woman must look as if she were going forth to maul rails or to ditch. The lace frill that once fell over her hand is gone, well that ought to please you for don't you remember how you used to dabble yours in your saucer of bloom of youth. When the minister would call and you wanted to put an added touch to your beauty, then you would tell him it was strawberry stain off the hands of the little sick child you had been visiting."

"Lelinda is it true that when you went to town last you offered the conductor your tax ticket when he went around to take up tickets? Yes I paid that much what come around again? ($10) for that ticket and I want to get my money back. He told me it had to be done so as I might receive the protection of the law and send my children to school. And if that wont insult enough I don't know, and me looking young enough to be in the school room myself and after paying all that money the law ain't never sent a single lawyer around here to throw a protecting arm around me yet and now I have got to get the good of that ticket in some way; either ride it out on the train or go to a circus. I ain't going to be spending my money to support a lot of good for-nothing teachers and lawyers, and getting no return benefits." "They are a new kind of fits ain't they?" asked Carline, "but I know you are subject to fits, love fits. There you go again. I heard nothing but love and boys this whole summer through; you've been making eyes at every boy that come in the village this summer and last Sunday night one lady had to phone for her son to come home. Well he did'nt come to see me, at any rate I wish you would go and get me some apples, for I am as sick of love as Solomon was when he asked for them."
